COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

O, "Lena," you spoke too quick. We lost a nice hog last week with something like quinsy.

Mrs. John Brooks was visiting friends on Lacy creek last week.

India and Mollie Coldiron went to see their sick grandma Sunday.

Brother Pike and family spent Friday at Sunny Side. Come again Brother Pike, you are welcome.

Thank you, Uncle Jim Tom, we feel highly complimented by the sentiments you expressed, and we most heartily return it. We always read your letters with great pleasure.

Arbury Brooks and Moody Lacy spent part of last week in Menefee county. Moody didn't want the girls down there to find out that he was engaged, and Arbury didn't tell it, as he is not much of a talker.

Howard James sat on the front seat, between two thieves, and drove to Goodwin's chapel Sunday, but neither of them stole his heart for he didn't have it, he had sent it to Cincinnati to be repaired.

Oh! we did have such a nice trip to Goodwin's chapel Sunday. Saw so many of our old school mates, and some of them said that they would join us again the 11th of September.

No "Shiner," we won't sing for you, after you done went and been to Campton with her pap. Nothing short of a charming belle will satisfy you, and we don't have them at Sunny Side.

Uncle Rastus and Aunt Darcus Brooks was visiting their daughter, Mrs. Tennie Spencer, last week, and while there Aunt Darcus was taken very sick and has since kept her bed.

Brother Mills, pastor of the Methodist church at Jackson, took dinner with us Friday. Come again brother, we like to have the brother preachers visit us. Our dear father was a minister, and died while at work in Henry county, when your writer was a baby four months' old. O, how thankful children ought to be who have had the happy privilege of being reared by both parents. We have always felt that something very near and dear has been missed.

Aug. 14. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Chester, the little son of Wm. Toliver, is very low.

Mrs. B. F. Bowling spent Sunday at O. W. McNabb's.

Lula Kash was shaking hands with friends in Toliver and Clifty last week.

Miss Mollie Cox is visiting friends and relatives at Campton this week.

Old Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife passed through here Friday and gave us a pleasant call.

Old Uncle Joe Ross, of Menefee, paid B. F. Bowling a visit Saturday.

Rev. B. M. Mannin and his father have been attending a protracted meeting near Morehead.

Quite a number of the friends and relatives from around Toliver attended the funeral of old Uncle Sam Cecil at Goodwin's chapel Sunday.

Every day should be distinguished by at least one particular act of love. Go to work for the Hazel Green academy, and all will be well.

The western fever is raging in this part. J. J. Catron left Monday for Fair Grange, Ill., where he will spend a month or so, and while there look him out a location.

While O. W. McNabb was at the Masonic Lodge, Saturday night at Maytown, a notorious wretch mounted his horse and rode off. They are after him, but have not caught him yet. I hope they will catch him and give him the benefit of the law.

Aug. 14. SCRIBE-MOX.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Miss Minnie Day, of Hazel Green, gave the Springs a very pleasant call Thursday.

Miss Eliza Nickell spent Sunday with John Kash and family, of Public Square.

W. P. Cecil, of your town, took dinner with Mrs. D. B. May one day last week.

F. A. Craft, wife and daughter, Miss Lizzie, spent last week on their farm at Salem.

Misses Sallie and Nina Cruet, two of Lacy creek's bright sparkles, were the guests of ye writer Tuesday.

Harman Swango and wife, W. P. Cecil, Mrs. W. H. John and Mrs. D. B. May took in the memorial services at Goodwin's chapel Sunday, conducted by Rev. E. K. Pike in honor of Samuel Cecil, deceased.

J. M. Jones and wife, of Ewing; H. B. Robinson and wife, Chas. W. Wood and wife, of Carlisle; H. B. Bramlett, of Winchester, and James Cain, wife and son, of Carlisle, are the guests of the Swango House this week.

Rev. J. J. Dickey, editor of the Mountain Messenger at Campton, gave us a very pleasant call Tuesday on his way from Caney where he had just organized a large Sunday school. As he is so interested in that work, we Sunday school workers are always glad to meet Bro. Dickey who is so ever ready to give us advice, which we feel in need of at all times.

GILLMORE GLEANINGS.

Rev. H. H. Little still remains in a critical condition.

James Ely is moving his saw fixtures from Quicksand, preparatory to go to sawing lumber for the people.

D. H. Lindon, who has been confined to his room with sore eyes, we are glad to state is fast improving and will soon be able to be out again.

W. T. Haynes and family of Grassy creek, Morgan county, passed through here the 9th inst., on their way to Quicksand, Breathitt county, to visit friends and relatives there for a week. Miss Rachel J. Vest, of this place, also accompanied them.

On the 8th inst., one Miss Caroline Gibbs and Mrs. Liz Gibbs, wife and sister of James Gibbs, both of bad repute, attacked Miss Nannie Graham while she was out in the orchard getting some apples, and unmercifully beat her on the head with a pistol 44 calibre and would have killed her had she not been rescued by her mother and Bruce Nickell. Nannie is very badly bruised up, but not considered fatally. She is doing very well and will soon be out again.

Esq. J. D. Rose's court convened on the 2d inst., at 9 a. m., with 36 cases on the docket. Thirty misdemeanors and six civil actions; all of which was disposed of except four which was continued.

Attorneys present, A. H. Stamper for the commonwealth; J. C. Back, R. A. Hurst, of Jackson; W. B. Duff, G. B. Stamper, of Campton; C. O. Cardwell, J. M. Tester, of Landsaw; W. H. Kash, of Hazel Green, and S. T. Amyx, of Daysboro. 'Squire Rose, though young, dispenses business with a vim and accuracy as if though he be one of the older ones; becoming so well versed in the law we predict he will be heard from in the future. We hear that he has declined the race for county judge, we are sorry to hear that, but on account of friends and relatives he could not do otherwise. Well that makes his chances better next time.

Aug. 14. UNCLE REMUS.

MENEFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG SPARKLES.

D. H. Phelps is building a nice veranda to the front of his residence.

Dr. Will Lockhart, of Ezel, has been here for the last two weeks on professional business.

Mrs. Amanda Pore, who has been on the sick list for three months, is no better.

Sheriff I. T. Hedger left Tuesday for Wellington and Slade on official business, and returned on Saturday.

The order of I. O. O. F. are gaining in membership, and have weekly meeting with some 45 or 50 members.

Mrs. Annie Todd, of Jackson, and Miss Lula Phillips, of Stanton, are spending the week at Greenwade Hotel.

Seed ticks made a raid on the farm of Abe Spradling, near McCausey, and destroyed a large portion of his corn.

Garfield Mitchel, who was shot not long ago by the accidental discharge of a gun, was around town Sunday on crutches.

Uncle Ben Wells, a prominent farmer near Longbranch, died on Saturday last with flux. He leaves a host of friends and relatives to mourn his loss.

Charles Turner, of the Oil and Gas Company, of Mt. Sterling, was here last week abstracting leases, and made his headquarters at the Greenwade Hotel.

An ice cream supper was held here last week for the benefit of the M. E. church. Quite a neat sum was collected and improvement will begin at once.

Sam Wilson, the painter from Hazel Green, is here at work on Odd Fellows' hall. He is redening and striping the brick. When completed will be the gem of the town; other work will follow.

Not a stone's throw from town is a huge rock, its equal, perhaps, does not exist anywhere in Kentucky. Its height is 200 feet, standing on a summit of a mountain a sentinel towering over other rocks and cliffs. Through the middle of this gigantic stone, is an opening about 3 feet square, where daylight peeps through at early dawn. Sometime in the fall of the year, as the sun is traveling southward, Old Sol does not forget to gaze through this opening with magnificence and splendor. If you wish to behold this work of nature? If you wish to see something that is beautiful? You must pay an early visit in the last of October to a ridge north of the town, just as Old Sol is rising to greet the day, and you will behold him winking and blinking at you through the opening. The name of this colossal stone is Donathan Rock.

SPENCER ITEMS.

News is scarce.

Rain still continues.

Mrs. Emma Duff is quite sick.

C. E. Duff returned from a business trip in the mountains.

Miss Rebecca Leford, who has been quite sick for some time, is improving.

C. E. Leford has accepted a position as book-keeper at Rothwell with Tabor Bros.

Miss Lucy Owings, of Mt. Sterling, was the guest of Miss Lydia Leford Sunday.

Misses Rylda Horton and May Webb Gipson, of Camargo, accompanied by Bruce Duff and Frank Lockridge, attended church at Antioch Saturday night.

Mrs. Sophia McEwing, of Winchester, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Allen Myres.

Misses Esther Wilson and Lou Stephens, of Mt. Sterling; Carl Mize, of Hazel Green, were pleasant guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Godsey last week.

Miss Lydia Leford, who was quite sick a few days last week, is out again and will resume her work in the school room Monday morning.

Miss Bessie Miller, who has been visiting her uncle, J. David O'Rear, returned to her home Saturday. Miss Bessie is a charming young lady and admired by all.

While wrestling over a knife, Saturday last, Bill Johnson was seriously cut in the abdomen, and Newt Jewett on the hand. Be careful boys how you play in the future.

James Crooks, Cole, Virgil, Geo. Barnes and sister, of Preston; Misses Mattie Young, Hattie Conner, Lida Jackson, Andy and Frank Lockridge, J. M. O'Rear, of this place, were entertained by the Misses Lefords Sunday. The Barnes seem to be taking the day on Spencer. Wonder what the attraction is?

MORCAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

Little Johnny Blankenship still continues ill.

The campmeeting closed at this place Tuesday night with but few converts.

W. T. Swango was on this creek Monday, buying hogs for the Mt. Sterling market.

Mrs. R. D. Motley and Mrs. E. F. Cecil were the guests of Mrs. W. J. Wallace Monday.

T. M. Lee and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of Cal Cundiff on Lacy creek.

Wm. Blankenship will leave Friday for Clifty to attend the Burning Spring association to be held at that place.

Quite a crowd attended the funeral at Goodwin's chapel Sunday, and all report a good time, and a well behaved congregation.

Hush! There may be a wedding to report soon, but I will not say any more on the subject just now. Let dame rumor have her sayings.

Pickett Motley and mother who have been visiting friends and relatives on Grassy for a few days past, returned to their home at Spencer Tuesday.

Rev. Barney Blankenship preached in Montgomery Saturday and Sunday, and on his way to that place spent the night with Brother Dick Childers and his good wife, of Maytown.

Bro. Willie Lykins, of Grassy Lick, was elected moderator of the Baptist church here on last Saturday, and the meetings will be held on the second Saturday in each month.

The church at this place met Saturday and appointed W. J. Wallace, Lige Blankenship and H. H. Blankenship, delegates to the association to be held with the Bethel church on War creek, beginning Friday before the fourth Saturday in August, 1900.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

FROZEN CREEK FROSTS.

The school at this place is progressing nicely.

Eating watermelons is the principal enjoyment of the day.

Misses Nettie Combs and Loula Strong were in this neighborhood Sunday.

Harlin South and sister, Miss Dora, attended the street fair at Jackson Friday.

The Sunday school at the new church is in a flourishing condition. May the good work go on.

Luther Day and sister, Miss Carry, went to Jackson Thursday and returned Sunday.

Mrs. James Ward, of Jackson, was visiting her brother, Will Smith, this week.

Taylor Hurst, who has been quite sick with fever, is rapidly improving.

Rev. J. B. Flinchum will preach at our school house the third Sunday. All are invited.

John Beatty, clerk in the Day store at the mouth of Frozen, was seeing after ties on this creek last week.

Alex. Cundiff, of War creek, attended church on this side Sunday. He is teaching his home school.

Rev. Wallen, of Jackson, preached an interesting sermon Sunday afternoon at the White Oak school house.

People say their crops are ruined by so much rain, and their cattle will starve to death this winter, as there will be no nubbins.

To read Susie Sunbeam's letters it seems as all the sunshine had left Sunny Side and gone to Frozen. Well, we need plenty of sunshine to thaw us up occasionally.

Dr. Center, who lives at the Nathan Day farm, is preparing to return to his home on War creek, and Walter Day will occupy the residence vacated by Dr. Center.

Edward Oney, who is teaching the Nigger branch school, started over here to see his sister last Saturday, and on hearing that she had flown towards Sunny Side, he didn't get any further than Will Smith's watermelon patch.

Ye scribe had the pleasure of taking supper on the South fork of Frozen Sunday, and we don't blame the Judge for going there fishing, for if any one wants the coveted gravy, that's the place to get it.

Last week Peter Rich, of Ohio, visited us and carried away one of our fairest flowers, a Miss Turner. This was the result of an advertisement; never seeing each other until about one week before they were married. Now girls if you want to get married, just advertise, it is a safer plan than to go out gleaming as did Ruth of old.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

THE announcement of Judge G. T. Center for county judge appears in our paper today. He is so well known that an introduction at our hands seems superfluous. Born and reared in Wolfe, he has always been a voter in the county, and always voted the democratic ticket. He was school commissioner for the two years 1880-82; was elect-sheff in 1884, entering upon the discharge of his duties Jan. 1, 1885, and at the end of his term was nominated for re-election by acclamation and re-elected without opposition. He was elected county judge in 1896, and is the present incumbent. That he has made the county a painstaking, careful and economical executive officer is patent to all who will take the pains to inquire. Like all men who feel that they have done their duty, Judge Center believes that he has earned and deserves an endorsement for second term at the hands of his constituents. Under his management the fiduciary condition of the county is better than ever before. Prior to his administration of affairs a claim allowed in this year was not paid until the levy of the next, which worked a hardship upon the claimant in many instances, in that he had to discount it. The claimant can now liquidate his claim at once for the reason that he can realize upon it so much sooner. The clerk's statement in settlement of sheriff's account with the county shows the county to be $2200 ahead of usual management. Judge Center submits his claims to the democratic party, of course, and in doing so asks that his administration from a moral standpoint be compared with that of any or all former officials, confident that the law-abiding, moral, christian citizen is his endorser. And soliciting the vote of all good citizens, he leaves his case with the democratic primary, Saturday, Sept. 15, 1900.

Wonder if Roosevelt, now that he is enjoying temporarily the luxuries of life rendered in elegance by the emoluments of an office, presented him through the gallantry of the Tenth Negro cavalry at San Juan hill, ever thinks of rewarding the blasted black imps. The black devils did the fighting while Teddy and his rough riders marched off with the laurels, a wreath of which Teddy now unworthily wears as the hero of that hill. Bah!

THE United States having knocked the stuffin' out of "merry old Hengland" on divers occasions, that old cuss is trying to rope her into the war with China, lest when the chestnuts are roasted John Bull will not get his part. He fears the lion, but far more does he dread the eagle!

WITH Bryan as the great leader of the great democratic party of the great United States; Richard Croker, presiding o'er the forum of Taminy; Burke Cockran commanding the gallant forces in New York, and the young hero of the hour, Hon. J. C. W. Beckham, with an army numbering 40,000 more than the enemy, enflaming the flanks, the cause of democracy will win by 85,000 to 40,000 majority, and millions will bless the name of Bryan and Beckham. Rah! Rah! We are Beckhamites; Hip! Hip! We are for Bryan, too! Three cheers for old Kentucky For she will pull you thro'.

BRYAN and Beckham will be the slogan this fall and the democratic hosts will shout it until they are wearied with hoarseness, while McKinley and Roosevelt will receive a rebuke so strong as to drive them into political obscurity forever and forever.

THE eagle is a right noble bird, and when he whets his talons to protect the Boer nestlings, John Bull's bellowing may be heard all over South Africa.

Why send away from home for pianos, organs, sewingmachines, buggies, &c., when we can and will save you money, and goods will be first-class. We sell direct from factories and save you the jobbers profit, which is always big enough. We will repair your sewingmachines, watches, clocks, &c., in first-class style and at reasonable prices. We can astonish you in prices on fine bibles, picture frames, watches, jewelry, etc., etc. Kindly soliciting the patronage of Wolfe and surrounding counties.

Mail orders shall have special attention. When answering this advertisement, say you saw it in the HAZEL GREEN HERALD. I am

Very truly,
J. T. GEYEDON,
Hazel Green.

"WHITAR" ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It soils neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps, and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious. Ask your dealer for it.

Sebe Walters on Tuesday bought of S. M. Tyler one hog and five sheep for $17 cash.

Rev. J. J. Dickey, of Campton, attended the teachers' institute at West Liberty this week.

Pat-Howe, of Campton, was here Saturday night, and "they say" he talks of running for sheriff.

David Linden, candidate for sheriff, was shaking hands with his many friends and fellow citizens here Tuesday.

Serepta Rawlins, of Covington, will arrive tomorrow and be the guest of Miss Minnie Day for several days.

Ova Swango and wife went to West Liberty Tuesday morning to attend the teachers' institute of Morgan county.

HUMORS, boils, pimples and all eruptions are due to impure blood, and by purifying the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla they are CURED.

W. T. Swango on Tuesday bought of John S. Pieratt, of the Murphy fork, seven stock hogs that weighed a total of 818 pounds, but the price was not made public.

Mrs. Ireland and Mr. and Mrs. Cord, accompanied by Master Robert Cord, left on Wednesday morning for Mason county, where they will spend three or four weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Judge Steve Tutt, accompanied by his sawyer, a man named Wood, was here on Wednesday looking after an "edger" to attach to his sawmill, now located on the Trace fork, near "Bad D." Rose's.

J. J. Catron, of the Chapel branch, last week sold his farm on that creek to Henry Stamper, about 90 acres, for $600 cash, and Mr. Catron is now in the west prospecting for a permanent location.

Huron Bryant, of Parker, Kansas, is visiting his father-in-law, Reese Oldfield, of Blackwater, who is in bad health. Mr. Bryant was raised on Blackwater, we believe, but moved to Kansas about 25 years ago and this is the first time he has visited in this section since.

A big Methodist camp meeting began at Carr's spring, near Ezel, on Wednesday of this week. Revs. Horace Cockrell, J. J. Dickey and E. K. Pike will conduct the services, in which they will be assisted by several other ministers of the Methodist church.

TWAS ON THE BANKS.

'Twas on the banks we wandered,
The flowers were blooming gay,
And seemed to light with gladness
The tender blush of May,
While songs of birds entranced us;
'Twas like a happy dream
As we watched the shadows of the blue
Reflected in the stream.

'Twas on the banks we loitered,
And told our tale of love,
The rippling sprays kept on their course,
And birds still sang above;
The tender light of those fair eyes
Was beautiful to see,
I heard those sweet lips whisper,
I'll ever be true to thee.

'Twas on the banks we quarrelled
About some trifling thing;
You gave me back that treasure,
The pure and cherished ring,
To think a dream so pure and sweet,
And O, so long enjoyed
Would in a moment thus decay,
And every hope destroyed.

'Twas on the banks we parted,
The crystal waves went by,
The flowers whispered, all is o'er,
The birds sang with a sigh;
The dragging years have come and gone,
And left a sad regret,
But memories of those by gone days,
My heart can ne'er forget.
Frenchburg, Ky. SAM WILSON.

A False Report Corrected.

The report that David Linden is not a candidate for sheriff of this county is absolutely false and without foundation in fact. Mr. Linden is himself our authority for the statement that if he lives he will be a candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Wolfe county until the polls close on Saturday, Sept. 15, 1900, all reports the contrary notwithstanding. Dave says he may be in the way of some of the aspirants to the office, and the wish being father to the thought, they would like for him to come off. But he says he was the first to announce for the office, and God willing, he will be the last to withdraw. Indeed he will not withdraw at all, and the only way to get him off is to get more votes than he does and drive him off, and this he does not think they can do, as every day encourages him to believe that he has more votes than any other named man, and that his army is growing. He says he has not been able to see his friends and constituents for the reason that he has suffered with sore eyes, the result of exposure and cold. But they are growing better day by day and he hopes from now on to see every one of them. In event, however, he fails to do so, remember that it is because of his physical disability to do so, and don't under any circumstances get it into your head that he is running in the interest of any man or set of men. He is doing, and will continue to do, all he can in an honorable straight forward way to elect himself sheriff, and this done, he will see that the people have only competent and popular deputies to aid him in the duties pertaining to the office, but he will make no swaps or trades to compromise either himself or his constituents. Never!

They Went On a Strike.

All of the men who had teams on the Ohio and Kentucky railroad between Lee City and the Caney tunnel, about 100 of them, went on a strike Monday because the contractors reduced the price of team and driver from $3 for 11 hours to $2.50. The people who had teams held a meeting and demanded $3 for a day of 10 hours. The shovellers also quit to show sympathy with the movement, and will stick to their demand for $1.25 for 10 hours' work. They have been working 11 hours.

Ike Combs, the present jailer and candidate for the nomination and re-election on the Democratic ticket, was in town Wednesday shaking hands with his constituents. Mr. Combs has made a good jailer, and for that reason there are many who will give him their support in his race for re-election.

Belles and Beaux.

Quite a crowd of young folks from this place attended the funeral of Uncle Sam Cecil, which was preached at his late residence, on Grassy creek, on Sunday last by Revs. E. K. Pike and others. In the list of beaux and belles we noticed the following: D. W. Campbell, of Carlisle, and Miss Carrie Swango; Grant Lacy and Miss Alice Willis; Howard James and Miss Cordie Brennemen and Mollie Haney, and last but by no means least, among those who occupied seats in that back, was the petite pair, Robert Kash and Miss Callie Taulbee. In the vehicle immediately following the aforementioned sundown, was Miss Carrie Rose, accompanied by Robt. Day, who presented a pretty picture to look upon.

A Horse Stolen and Recovered.

Some one stole a horse from Oscar McNabb, at Maytown, on Saturday night while that gentleman was attending the Masonic lodge meeting at that place, and pursuit of the thief was begun in a few minutes. It was found that he went in by Spradling's mill, thence to the Calaboose neighborhood, where the pursuing party learned that he had probably gone to Quicksand, in Breathitt county. On Sunday night Harry Perkins, town marshal of this place, Jeff and Jim Day, of Maytown, Frank Bolin and Oscar McNabb, of Chapel branch, and others perhaps, started in pursuit, but with what success we have not yet learned.

Later.—They succeeded in getting the horse but not the thief.

Biggie Horse Book contains more "horse sense" than many volumes ten times its size. It tells all about breeds, about feeding and watering, about stable and road management, of whims and vices, of harness, of diseases and remedies, of breeding, of colt education, of shoeing, and indeed it covers the whole subject in a concise, practical and interesting manner. It contains 128 pages, is profusely and beautifully illustrated, and handsomely bound in cloth. Every man or woman who drives a horse should have a copy. The price is 50 cents, by mail, address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

To the Democrats of Wolfe County.

Having been solicited to make the race for sheriff, after making a canvass of a few days I find a great many that have committed themselves to other candidates. And, after due consideration, I beg leave to be excused from making this race, hoping the time may come when you all will rise up and say, "come." Thanking friends for their many solicitations, and love towards all, and malice toward none. Respectfully,
S. P. HOWE.

It took a ribbon of paper four feet wide and 256 miles long—further than from Philadelphia to Boston—to print the January Farm Journal. You should have the Farm Journal. It fairly bristles with good things. We have a clubbing arrangement by which we will send it for nearly five years, the balance of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to every one who pay up for THE HERALD at the price of our paper alone, which is only 65 cents.

Hon. Green Garrett, of Bowen, and Crit Childers were guests of the Day House Tuesday for dinner. Mr. Garrett is a large buyer of ties and staves along Red river and its tributaries, and was here looking after his business interests.

Some miscreant entered the residence of Allison Rose, near Lee City, on Wednesday night of last week, and cut a $20 saddle literally all to pieces. Such an act deserves the worst punishment that could be inflicted upon the perpetrator, and Mr. Rose should use every means to see that he is brought to justice.

Rev. E. K. Pike will fill his appointment at this place on Saturday night and Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, which will be the last service here during this conference year, and everybody invited. He will also preach at Rose chapel, on Lacy creek, on Sunday afternoon.

J. Weed Congleton, candidate for the Democratic nomination for county judge, and Frank Stamper, candidate for sheriff, were here Saturday night in the interest of their respective races.

Willie Caskey, of Morgan county, a former student of Hazel Green academy, is now traveling salesman for a shoe house, and was a guest of the Day House Tuesday and Wednesday.

CAUSE UNKNOWN.

[The following lines were written by a man who committed suicide in Chicago.]

I am standing on the threshold of eternity at last,
As reckless of the future as I have been of the past;
I am void of all ambition, I am dead to every hope,
The coil of life is ended and I'm letting go the rope.
I have drifted down the stream of time till weary, sore, oppressed,
And I am tired of the notion and simply want a rest.
I have tasted all the pleasures that life can hold for man;
I have scanned the whole world over till there's nothing left to scan.
I have heard the finest music, I have read the rarest books;
I have drunk the purest vintage and tasted
all the corks;
I have run the scale of living and sounded
every tone,
So there's nothing left to live for, and I long to be alone—
Alone and unmolested, where the vultures
do not rave,
And the only refuge left me is the quiet, placid grave.
I am judge and jury mingled, and the verdict that I give
Is, that minus friends and money, it is foolishness to live.

In a day or two my body will be found out in the lake,
The Coroner get a fee, the printer get a "take."

The usual verdict, "Suicide, from causes yet unknown,"
And Golgotha draws another blank—a mound without a stone.

To change the usual verdict I will give the reason now
Before the rigid seal of death is stamped upon my brow:

'Tis the old familiar story of passion, love and crime,
Repeated through the ages since Cleopatra's time—
A woman's lips, a woman's eyes—a siren all in all.

A modern Circe fit to cause the strongest man to fall;
A wedded life, some blissful years, and poverty drove in;

With care and doubt and liquor, from whisky down to gin.

The story told by Tolstoi in comparison with mine
Is moonlight unto sunlight, as water unto wine.

The jealous pangs I suffered, the hideous nights of woe,
I pray no other mortal may ever undergo,
But I've said enough, I fancy, to make my reasons plain—

Enough to show the causes of shattered heart and brain.
What wonder then that life holds not a single thread to bind
A wish or hope to live for, an interest in mankind?

Already dead, but breathing—a fact that I regret—
A man without desires, now excepting to forget;

And since that is denied me, why should I linger here—
A dead leaf of the forest of a long-forgotten year?

So, an revoir, old cronies! If there's a meeting place beyond,
I'll let you know in spirit and I know you will respond.

I'm going now, old comrades, to heaven or to hell—
I'll let you know which shortly—farewell, a long farewell.

OUR LETTER FROM THE ORIENT.

Corporal Geo. Taulbee Gives a Description of the Fourth of July in the Philippines.

To the Hazel Green Herald.

PANQUI LUZON, P. I.,
July 7, 1900.

Thinking it might interest the many readers of THE HERALD to see another letter from the Orient, and to know how the Fourth was spent and celebrated so far from home, I will try and give a description of the program participated in by this regiment on that day. The fourth of July one year ago was spent in the trenches around San Fernando; a bitter day for boys who had always laid aside all work to partake of luxuries and enjoy the day which marked our freedom years, years ago. The feeling of regret could be plainly seen upon the countenance of all. Folks at home were enjoying themselves in every way possible, in the mind of the soldier, while he was in a dirty trench, tired, hungry and with the sun beating down upon him with all its orient fury. It was enough to make the strongest heart turn sick and beat with regret. A year has passed since that never to be forgotten day, and another fourth has been spent here in our far away possessions by the same men who lay in the trenches one year ago. But with the year that has come and gone, came changes also.

The fourth this year was not so regretfully spent. The territory over which we were struggling last year, is now ours. The trench is not known today in this vicinity. Of course there are a great many contested places yet, but none we can't and won't win. The Philippines are practically ours. So mote it be. The day came with joy for us; at reveille on the fourth of July, 1900, was a new era awakening upon our new possessions. The band of this regiment played all national airs, while soldiers crowded around and gave cheer after cheer. The excitement was even greater than when we faced the dusky googs, in battle. The men had collected upon the plaza in front of the convent in which we are quartered. One thousand boys in blue, mingling and cheering with each other till tears of joy coursed down each sun-tanned cheek. It was indeed a glorious fourth. At last after playing long all familiar airs, the band struck up that song which stirs all patriotic hearts, "The Star Spangled Banner," and then the men went wild; officers and men alike cheered till they could cheer no longer from sheer exhaustion. All at once the bugle call for mess broke shrill upon the balmy air, and the boys retired to mess with cheerful hearts. Breakfast over, we went at once to the ball game, where a game was to take place between the band and our company. The game was very interesting and lasted until very near noon. The game over, preparations were at once made for dinner. Our cooks had long saved up extras for this occasion, and we naturally expected a good meal. You may imagine we were very anxious for mess, have to race around, expecting such a feast after a year eating hardtack, bacon and drinking black coffee. At 12 m, dinner was announced, and here is what we had: "Tea with cream, roast beef, warm biscuit, pork, pickles, onions, corn, beans, butter, French fried potatoes with cake and peaches for desert. It was a dinner, such as make soldiers forget their hardships for a moment and brings comfort to their storm-beaten hearts. It is needless to say the evening was joyfully spent after the excitement of the morning followed by such an excellent dinner. Games of all kinds were participated in, and all went as merry as a marriage bell till the bugle call announced retreat, then our dream of happiness was broken, and our duty as soldiers once more lay before us. I shall never forget the fourth of July I spent in the Philippines. We missed our friends and happy associates, but our toil and hardships prior to this, so suddenly lightened, made us, I dare say, forget their absence. We are very expectant over the trouble with China. However, we hope it will result in nothing serious.

We have just heard of the nomination of Bryan. The aristocratic natives are jubilant over the news.

If it was left to the inhabitants of the Philippines, Bryan would certainly be the next president of the United States.

I have just returned from Anglis, where I was sent for registered mail. The above place is fifty miles from here, and is our nearest post office. There is only four post offices on this island—one at Manila, one at Anglis and the other two at Dagupan and Batista. I think our government should establish a postal service here at once for the benefit of the soldiers and officers. It seems that our freedom loving people are more intent upon establishing saloons and billiard halls than something useful and beneficial to us as well as the natives. When Dewey took Manila, there were nine saloons in the city, today there are thirty-six, and more going up. Ashame and disgrace to our government.

With regards to Mrs. Cooper and success to the glorious old HERALD. I am, respectfully,

GEO. C. TAULBEE,

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

O, "Lena," you spoke too quick. We lost a nice hog last week with something like quinsy.

Mrs. John Brooks was visiting friends on Lacy creek last week.

India and Mollie Coldiron went to see their sick grandma Sunday.

Brother Pike and family spent Friday at Sunny Side. Come again Brother Pike, you are welcome.

Thank you, Uncle Jim Tom, we feel highly complimented by the sentiments you expressed, and we most heartily return it. We always read your letters with great pleasure.

Arbury Brooks and Moody Lacy spent part of last week in Menefee county. Moody didn't want the girls down there to find out that he was engaged, and Arbury didn't tell it, as he is not much of a talker.

Howard James sat on the front seat, between two thieves, and drove to Goodwin's chapel Sunday, but neither of them stole his heart for he didn't have it, he had sent it to Cincinnati to be repaired.

Oh! we did have such a nice trip to Goodwin's chapel Sunday. Saw so many of our old school mates, and some of them said that they would join us again the 11th of September.

No "Shiner," we won't sing for you, after you done went and been to Campton with her pap. Nothing short of a charming belle will satisfy you, and we don't have them at Sunny Side.

Uncle Rastus and Aunt Darcus Brooks was visiting their daughter, Mrs. Tennie Spencer, last week, and while there Aunt Darcus was taken very sick and has since kept her bed.

Brother Mills, pastor of the Methodist church at Jackson, took dinner with us Friday. Come again brother, we like to have the brother preachers visit us. Our dear father was a minister, and died while at work in Henry county, when your writer was a baby four months' old. O, how thankful children ought to be who have had the happy privilege of being reared by both parents. We have always felt that something very near and dear has been missed.

Aug. 14. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Chester, the little son of Wm. Toliver, is very low.

Mrs. B. F. Bowling spent Sunday at O. W. McNabb's.

Lula Kash was shaking hands with friends in Toliver and Clifty last week.

Miss Mollie Cox is visiting friends and relatives at Campton this week.

Old Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife passed through here Friday and gave us a pleasant call.

Old Uncle Joe Ross, of Menefee, paid B. F. Bowling a visit Saturday.

Rev. B. M. Mannin and his father have been attending a protracted meeting near Morehead.

Quite a number of the friends and relatives from around Toliver attended the funeral of old Uncle Sam Cecil at Goodwin's chapel Sunday.

Every day should be distinguished by at least one particular act of love. Go to work for the Hazel Green academy, and all will be well.

The western fever is raging in this part. J. J. Catron left Monday for Fair Grange, Ill., where he will spend a month or so, and while there look him out a location.

While O. W. McNabb was at the Masonic Lodge, Saturday night at Maytown, a notorious wretch mounted his horse and rode off. They are after him, but have not caught him yet. I hope they will catch him and give him the benefit of the law.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Miss Minnie Day, of Hazel Green, gave the Springs a very pleasant call Thursday.

Miss Eliza Nickell spent Sunday with John Kash and family, of Public Square.

W. P. Cecil, of your town, took dinner with Mrs. D. B. May one day last week.

F. A. Craft, wife and daughter, Miss Lizzie, spent last week on their farm at Salem.

Misses Sallie and Nina Cruet, two of Lacy creek's bright sparkles, were the guests of ye writer Tuesday.

Harman Swango and wife, W. P. Cecil, Mrs. W. H. John and Mrs. D. B. May took in the memorial services at Goodwin's chapel Sunday, conducted by Rev. E. K. Pike in honor of Samuel Cecil, deceased.

J. M. Jones and wife, of Ewing; H. B. Robinson and wife, Chas. W. Wood and wife, of Carlisle; H. B. Bramlett, of Winchester, and James Cain, wife and son, of Carlisle, are the guests of the Swango House this week.

Rev. J. J. Dickey, editor of the Mountain Messenger at Campton, gave us a very pleasant call Tuesday on his way from Caney where he had just organized a large Sunday school. As he is so interested in that work, we Sunday school workers are always glad to meet Bro. Dickey who is so ever ready to give us advice, which we feel in need of at all times.

GILLMORE GLEANINGS.

Rev. H. H. Little still remains in a critical condition.

James Ely is moving his saw fixtures from Quicksand, preparatory to go to sawing lumber for the people.

D. H. Lindon, who has been confined to his room with sore eyes, we are glad to state is fast improving and will soon be able to be out again.

W. T. Haynes and family of Grassy creek, Morgan county, passed through here the 9th inst., on their way to Quicksand, Breathitt county, to visit friends and relatives there for a week. Miss Rachel J. Vest, of this place, also accompanied them.

On the 8th inst., one Miss Caroline Gibbs and Mrs. Liz Gibbs, wife and sister of James Gibbs, both of bad repute, attacked Miss Nannie Graham while she was out in the orchard getting some apples, and unmercifully beat her on the head with a pistol 44 calibre and would have killed her had she not been rescued by her mother and Bruce Nickell. Nannie is very badly bruised up, but not considered fatally. She is doing very well and will soon be out again.

Esq. J. D. Rose's court convened on the 2d inst., at 9 a. m., with 36 cases on the docket. Thirty misdemeanors and six civil actions; all of which was disposed of except four which was continued. Attorneys present, A. H. Stamper for the commonwealth; J. C. Back, R. A. Hurst, of Jackson; W. B. Duff, G. B. Stamper, of Campton; C. O. Cardwell, J. M. Tester, of Landsaw; W. H. Kash, of Hazel Green, and S. T. Amyx, of Daysboro. Squire Rose, though young, dispenses business with a vim and accuracy as if though he be one of the older ones; becoming so well versed in the law we predict he will be heard from in the future. We hear that he has declined the race for county judge, we are sorry to hear that, but on account of friends and relatives he could not do otherwise. Well that makes his chances better next time.

MENEFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG SPARKLES.

D. H. Phelps is building a nice veranda to the front of his residence.

Dr. Will Lockhart, of Ezel, has been here for the last two weeks on professional business.

Mrs. Amanda Pore, who has been on the sick list for three months, is no better.

Sheriff I. T. Hedger left Tuesday for Wellington and Slade on official business, and returned on Saturday.

The order of I. O. O. F. are gaining in membership, and have weekly meeting with some 45 or 50 members.

Mrs. Annie Todd, of Jackson, and Miss Lula Phillips, of Stanton, are spending the week at Greenwade Hotel.

Seed ticks made a raid on the farm of Abe Spradling, near McCausey, and destroyed a large portion of his corn.

Garfield Mitchel, who was shot not long ago by the accidental discharge of a gun, was around town Sunday on crutches.

Uncle Ben Wells, a prominent farmer near Longbranch, died on Saturday last with flux. He leaves a host of friends and relatives to mourn his loss.

Charles Turner, of the Oil and Gas Company, of Mt. Sterling, was here last week abstracting leases, and made his headquarters at the Greenwade Hotel.

An ice cream supper was held here last week for the benefit of the M. E. church. Quite a neat sum was collected and improvement will begin at once.

Sam Wilson, the painter from Hazel Green, is here at work on Odd Fellows' hall. He is redening and striping the brick. When completed will be the gem of the town; other work will follow.

Not a stone's throw from town is a huge rock, its equal, perhaps, does not exist anywhere in Kentucky. Its height is 200 feet, standing on a summit of a mountain a sentinel towering over other rocks and cliffs. Through the middle of this gigantic stone, is an opening about 3 feet square, where daylight peeps through at early dawn. Sometime in the fall of the year, as the sun is traveling southward, Old Sol does not forget to gaze through this opening with magnificence and splendor. If you wish to behold this work of nature? If you wish to see something that is beautiful? You must pay an early visit in the last of October to a ridge north of the town, just as Old Sol is rising to greet the day, and you will behold him winking and blinking at you through the opening. The name of this colossal stone is Donathan Rock.

SPENCER ITEMS.

News is scarce.

Rain still continues.

Mrs. Emma Duff is quite sick.

C. E. Duff returned from a business trip in the mountains.

Miss Rebecca Leford, who has been quite sick for some time, is improving.

C. E. Leford has accepted a position as book-keeper at Rothwell with Tabor Bros.

Miss Lucy Owings, of Mt. Sterling, was the guest of Miss Lydia Leford Sunday.

Misses Rylda Horton and May Webb Gipson, of Camargo, accompanied by Bruce Duff and Frank Lockridge, attended church at Antioch Saturday night.

Mrs. Sophia McEwing, of Winchester, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Allen Myres.

Misses Esther Wilson and Lou Stephens, of Mt. Sterling; Carl Mize, of Hazel Green, were pleasant guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Godsey last week.

Miss Lydia Leford, who was quite sick a few days last week, is out again and will resume her work in the school room Monday morning.

Miss Bessie Miller, who has been visiting her uncle, J. David O'Rear, returned to her home Saturday. Miss Bessie is a charming young lady and admired by all.

While wrestling over a knife, Saturday last, Bill Johnson was seriously cut in the abdomen, and Newt Jewett on the hand. Be careful boys how you play in the future.

James Crooks, Cole, Virgil, Geo. Barnes and sister, of Preston; Misses Mattie Young, Hattie Conner, Lida Jackson, Andy and Frank Lockridge, J. M. O'Rear, of this place, were entertained by the Misses Lefords Sunday. The Barnes seem to be taking the day on Spencer. Wonder what the attraction is?

CONSOLATION CHAT.

Little Johnny Blankenship still continues ill.

The campmeeting closed at this place Tuesday night with but few converts.

W. T. Swango was on this creek Monday, buying hogs for the Mt. Sterling market.

Mrs. R. D. Motley and Mrs. E. F. Cecil were the guests of Mrs. W. J. Wallace Monday.

T. M. Lee and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of Cal Cundiff on Lacy creek.

Wm. Blankenship will leave Friday for Clifty to attend the Burning Spring association to be held at that place.

Quite a crowd attended the funeral at Goodwin's chapel Sunday, and all report a good time, and a well behaved congregation.

Hush! There may be a wedding to report soon, but I will not say any more on the subject just now. Let dame rumor have her sayings.

Pickett Motley and mother who have been visiting friends and relatives on Grassy for a few days past, returned to their home at Spencer Tuesday.

Rev. Barney Blankenship preached in Montgomery Saturday and Sunday, and on his way to that place spent the night with Brother Dick Childers and his good wife, of Maytown.

Bro. Willie Lykins, of Grassy Lick, was elected moderator of the Baptist church here on last Saturday, and the meetings will be held on the second Saturday in each month.

The church at this place met Saturday and appointed W. J. Wallace, Lige Blankenship and H. H. Blankenship, delegates to the association to be held with the Bethel church on War creek, beginning Friday before the fourth Saturday in August, 1900.

FROZEN CREEK FROSTS.

The school at this place is progressing nicely.

Eating watermelons is the principal enjoyment of the day.

Misses Nettie Combs and Loula Strong were in this neighborhood Sunday.

Harlin South and sister, Miss Dora, attended the street fair at Jackson Friday.

The Sunday school at the new church is in a flourishing condition. May the good work go on.

Luther Day and sister, Miss Carry, went to Jackson Thursday and returned Sunday.

Mrs. James Ward, of Jackson, was visiting her brother, Will Smith, this week.

Taylor Hurst, who has been quite sick with fever, is rapidly improving.

Rev. J. B. Flinchum will preach at our school house the third Sunday. All are invited.

John Beatty, clerk in the Day store at the mouth of Frozen, was seeing after ties on this creek last week.

Alex. Cundiff, of War creek, attended church on this side Sunday. He is teaching his home school.

Rev. Wallen, of Jackson, preached an interesting sermon Sunday afternoon at the White Oak school house.

People say their crops are ruined by so much rain, and their cattle will starve to death this winter, as there will be no nubbins.

To read Susie Sunbeam's letters it seems as all the sunshine had left Sunny Side and gone to Frozen. Well, we need plenty of sunshine to thaw us up occasionally.

Dr. Center, who lives at the Nathan Day farm, is preparing to return to his home on War creek, and Walter Day will occupy the residence vacated by Dr. Center.

Edward Oney, who is teaching the Nigger branch school, started over here to see his sister last Saturday, and on hearing that she had flown towards Sunny Side, he didn't get any further than Will Smith's watermelon patch.

Ye scribe had the pleasure of taking supper on the South fork of Frozen Sunday, and we don't blame the Judge for going there fishing, for if any one wants the coveted gravy, that's the place to get it.

Last week Peter Rich, of Ohio, visited us and carried away one of our fairest flowers, a Miss Turner. This was the result of an advertisement; never seeing each other until about one week before they were married. Now girls if you want to get married, just advertise, it is a safer plan than to go out gleaming as did Ruth of old.

WITH the repeal of the Goebel law, which an extra session of the legislature is now likely to do about the end of this month, the Brownies, like many other affectionate but wayward boys, will fall into line, kiss mother, and promise fidelity for the future. Mother will gladly forgive.

Come, Brownies, and fall into line for the great feast and fandango to be held on the 12th of November.]

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

THE announcement of Judge G. T. Center for county judge appears in our paper today. He is so well known that an introduction at our hands seems superfluous. Born and reared in Wolfe, he has always been a voter in the county, and always voted the democratic ticket. He was school commissioner for the two years 1880-82; was elect-sheff in 1884, entering upon the discharge of his duties Jan. 1, 1885, and at the end of his term was nominated for re-election by acclamation and re-elected without opposition. He was elected county judge in 1896, and is the present incumbent. That he has made the county a painstaking, careful and economical executive officer is patent to all who will take the pains to inquire. Like all men who feel that they have done their duty, Judge Center believes that he has earned and deserves an endorsement for second term at the hands of his constituents. Under his management the fiduciary condition of the county is better than ever before. Prior to his administration of affairs a claim allowed in this year was not paid until the levy of the next, which worked a hardship upon the claimant in many instances, in that he had to discount it. The claimant can now liquidate his claim at once for the reason that he can realize upon it so much sooner. The clerk's statement in settlement of sheriff's account with the county shows the county to be $2200 ahead of usual management. Judge Center submits his claims to the democratic party, of course, and in doing so asks that his administration from a moral standpoint be compared with that of any or all former officials, confident that the law-abiding, moral, christian citizen is his endorser. And soliciting the vote of all good citizens, he leaves his case with the democratic primary, Saturday, Sept. 15, 1900.

Wonder if Roosevelt, now that he is enjoying temporarily the luxuries of life rendered in elegance by the emoluments of an office, presented him through the gallantry of the Tenth Negro cavalry at San Juan hill, ever thinks of rewarding the blasted blackimps. The black devils did the fighting while Teddy and his rough riders marched off with the laurels, a wreath of which Teddy now unworthily wears as the hero of that hill. Bah!

THE United States having knocked the stuffin' out of "merry old Hengland" on divers occasions, that old cuss is trying to rope her into the war with China, lest when the chestnuts are roasted John Bull will not get his part. He fears the lion, but far more does he dread the eagle!

WITH Bryan as the great leader of the great democratic party of the great United States; Richard Croker, presiding o'er the forum of Taminy; Burke Cockran commanding the gallant forces in New York, and the young hero of the hour, Hon. J. C. W. Beckham, with an army numbering 40,000 more than the enemy, enflaming the flanks, the cause of democracy will win by 85,000 to 40,000 majority, and millions will bless the name of Bryan and Beckham. Rah! Rah! We are Beckhamites; Hip! Hip! We are for Bryan, too! Three cheers for old Kentucky For she will pull you thro'.

BRYAN and Beckham will be the slogan this fall and the democratic hosts will shout it until they are wearied with hoarseness, while McKinley and Roosevelt will receive a rebuke so strong as to drive them into political obscurity forever and forever.

THE eagle is a right noble bird, and when he whets his talons to protect the Boer nestlings, John Bull's bellowing may be heard all over South Africa.

Why send away from home for pianos, organs, sewingmachines, buggies, &c., when we can and will save you money, and goods will be first-class. We sell direct from factories and save you the jobbers profit, which is always big enough. We will repair your sewingmachines, watches, clocks, &c., in first-class style and at reasonable prices. We can astonish you in prices on fine bibles, picture frames, watches, jewelry, etc., etc. Kindly soliciting the patronage of Wolfe and surrounding counties.

Mail orders shall have special attention. When answering this advertisement, say you saw it in the HAZEL GREEN HERALD. I am

Very truly,
J. T. GEYEDON,
Hazel Green.

"WHITAR" ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It soils neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps, and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.

THE HERALD.

FARM JOURNAL

Great Offer. From now to Dec. 1903, Nearly 5 Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

This offer should be accepted without delay.

Sebe Walters on Tuesday bought of S. M. Tyler one hog and five sheep for $17 cash.

Rev. J. J. Dickey, of Campton, attended the teachers' institute at West Liberty this week.

Pat-Howe, of Campton, was here Saturday night, and "they say" he talks of running for sheriff.

David Linden, candidate for sheriff, was shaking hands with his many friends and fellow citizens here Tuesday.

Serepta Rawlins, of Covington, will arrive tomorrow and be the guest of Miss Minnie Day for several days.

Ova Swango and wife went to West Liberty Tuesday morning to attend the teachers' institute of Morgan county.

John S. Pieratt, of the Murphy fork, seven stock hogs that weighed a total of 818 pounds, but the price was not made public.

Mrs. Ireland and Mr. and Mrs. Cord, accompanied by Master Robert Cord, left on Wednesday morning for Mason county, where they will spend three or four weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Judge Steve Tutt, accompanied by his sawyer, a man named Wood, was here on Wednesday looking after an "edger" to attach to his sawmill, now located on the Trace fork, near "Bad D." Rose's.

J. J. Catron, of the Chapel branch, last week sold his farm on that creek to Henry Stamper, about 90 acres, for $600 cash, and Mr. Catron is now in the west prospecting for a permanent location.

Huron Bryant, of Parker, Kansas, is visiting his father-in-law, Reese Oldfield, of Blackwater, who is in bad health. Mr. Bryant was raised on Blackwater, we believe, but moved to Kansas about 25 years ago and this is the first time he has visited in this section since.

A big Methodist camp meeting began at Carr's spring, near Ezel, on Wednesday of this week. Revs. Horace Cockrell, J. J. Dickey and E. K. Pike will conduct the services, in which they will be assisted by several other ministers of the Methodist church.

They Went On a Strike.

All of the men who had teams on the Ohio and Kentucky railroad between Lee City and the Caney tunnel, about 100 of them, went on a strike Monday because the contractors reduced the price of team and driver from $3 for 11 hours to $2.50. The people who had teams held a meeting and demanded $3 for a day of 10 hours. The shovellers also quit to show sympathy with the movement, and will stick to their demand for $1.25 for 10 hours' work. They have been working 11 hours.

Ike Combs, the present jailer and candidate for the nomination and re-election on the Democratic ticket, was in town Wednesday shaking hands with his constituents. Mr. Combs has made a good jailer, and for that reason there are many who will give him their support in his race for re-election.

TWAS ON THE BANKS.

'Twas on the banks we wandered,
The flowers were blooming gay,
And seemed to light with gladness
The tender blush of May,
While songs of birds entranced us;
'Twas like a happy dream
As we watched the shadows of the blue
Reflected in the stream.

'Twas on the banks we loitered,
And told our tale of love,
The rippling sprays kept on their course,
And birds still sang above;
The tender light of those fair eyes
Was beautiful to see,
I heard those sweet lips whisper,
I'll ever be true to thee.

'Twas on the banks we quarrelled
About some trifling thing;
You gave me back that treasure,
The pure and cherished ring,
To think a dream so pure and sweet,
And O, so long enjoyed
Would in a moment thus decay,
And every hope destroyed.

'Twas on the banks we parted,
The crystal waves went by,
The flowers whispered, all is o'er,
The birds sang with a sigh;
The dragging years have come and gone,
And left a sad regret,
But memories of those by gone days,
My heart can ne'er forget.

Frenchburg, Ky. SAM WILSON.

A False Report Corrected.

The report that David Linden is not a candidate for sheriff of this county is absolutely false and without foundation in fact. Mr. Linden is himself our authority for the statement that if he lives he will be a candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Wolfe county until the polls close on Saturday, Sept. 15, 1900, all reports the contrary notwithstanding. Dave says he may be in the way of some of the aspirants to the office, and the wish being father to the thought, they would like for him to come off. But he says he was the first to announce for the office, and God willing, he will be the last to withdraw. Indeed he will not withdraw at all, and the only way to get him off is to get more votes than he does and drive him off, and this he does not think they can do, as every day encourages him to believe that he has more votes than any other named man, and that his army is growing. He says he has not been able to see his friends and constituents for the reason that he has suffered with sore eyes, the result of exposure and cold. But they are growing better day by day and he hopes from now on to see every one of them. In event, however, he fails to do so, remember that it is because of his physical disability to do so, and don't under any circumstances get it into your head that he is running in the interest of any man or set of men. He is doing, and will continue to do, all he can in an honorable straight forward way to elect himself sheriff, and this done, he will see that the people have only competent and popular deputies to aid him in the duties pertaining to the office, but he will make no swaps or trades to compromise either himself or his constituents. Never!

They Went On a Strike.

All of the men who had teams on the Ohio and Kentucky railroad between Lee City and the Caney tunnel, about 100 of them, went on a strike Monday because the contractors reduced the price of team and driver from $3 for 11 hours to $2.50. The people who had teams held a meeting and demanded $3 for a day of 10 hours. The shovellers also quit to show sympathy with the movement, and will stick to their demand for $1.25 for 10 hours' work. They have been working 11 hours.

Ike Combs, the present jailer and candidate for the nomination and re-election on the Democratic ticket, was in town Wednesday shaking hands with his constituents. Mr. Combs has made a good jailer, and for that reason there are many who will give him their support in his race for re-election.

Belles and Beaux.

Quite a crowd of young folks from this place attended the funeral of Uncle Sam Cecil, which was preached at his late residence, on Grassy creek, on Sunday last by Revs. E. K. Pike and others.

In the list of beaux and belles we noticed the following: D. W. Campbell, of Carlisle, and Miss Carrie Swango; Grant Lacy and Miss Alice Willis; Howard James and Miss Cordie Brennen and Mollie Haney, and last but by no means least, among those who occupied seats in that back, was the petite pair, Robert Kash and Miss Callie Taulbee. In the vehicle immediately following the aforementioned sundown, was Miss Carrie Rose, accompanied by Robt. Day, who presented a pretty picture to look upon.

A Horse Stolen and Recovered.

Some one stole a horse from Oscar McNabb, at Maytown, on Saturday night while that gentleman was attending the Masonic lodge meeting at that place, and pursuit of the thief was begun in a few minutes. It was found that he went in by Spradling's mill, thence to the Calaboose neighborhood, where the pursuing party learned that he had probably gone to Quicksand, in Breathitt county. On Sunday night Harry Perkins, town marshal of this place, Jeff and Jim Day, of Maytown, Frank Bolin and Oscar McNabb, of Chapel branch, and others perhaps, started in pursuit, but with what success we have not yet learned.

Later.—They succeeded in getting the horse but not the thief.

Biggie Horse Book contains more "horse sense" than many volumes ten times its size. It tells all about breeds, about feeding and watering, about stable and road management, of whims and vices, of harness, of diseases and remedies, of breeding, of colt education, of shoeing, and indeed it covers the whole subject in a concise, practical and interesting manner. It contains 128 pages, is profusely and beautifully illustrated, and handsomely bound in cloth. Every man or woman who drives a horse should have a copy. The price is 50 cents, by mail, address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

To the Democrats of Wolfe County.

Having been solicited to make the race for sheriff, after making a canvass of a few days I find a great many that have committed themselves to other candidates. And, after due consideration, I beg leave to be excused from making this race, hoping the time may come when you all will rise up and say, "come." Thanking friends for their many solicitations, and love towards all, and malice toward none. Respectfully,

S. P. HOWE.

It took a ribbon of paper four feet wide and 256 miles long—further than from Philadelphia to Boston—to print the January Farm Journal. You should have the Farm Journal. It fairly bristles with good things. We have a clubbing arrangement by which we will send it for nearly five years, the balance of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to every one who pay up for THE HERALD at the price of our paper alone, which is only 65 cents.

Hon. Green Garrett, of Bowen, and Crit Childers were guests of the Day House Tuesday for dinner. Mr. Garrett is a large buyer of ties and staves along Red river and its tributaries, and was here looking after his business interests.

Some miscreant entered the residence of Allison Rose, near Lee City, on Wednesday night of last week, and cut a $20 saddle literally all to pieces. Such an act deserves the worst punishment that could be inflicted upon the perpetrator, and Mr. Rose should use every means to see that he is brought to justice.

Rev. E. K. Pike will fill his appointment at this place on Saturday night and Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, which will be the last service here during this conference year, and everybody invited. He will also preach at Rose chapel, on Lacy creek, on Sunday afternoon.

J. Weed Congleton, candidate for the Democratic nomination for county judge, and Frank Stamper, candidate for sheriff, were here Saturday night in the interest of their respective races.

Willie Caskey, of Morgan county, a former student of Hazel Green academy, is now traveling salesman for a shoe house, and was a guest of the Day House Tuesday and Wednesday.

Robert Kash is agent for the Home Steam Laundry, of Mt. Sterling, and will send his basket every two weeks. Shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., laundered in the best style.—lf.

CAUSE UNKNOWN.

[The following lines were written by a man who committed suicide in Chicago.]

I am standing on the threshold of eternity at last,
As reckless of the future as I have been of the past;
I am void of all ambition, I am dead to every hope,
The coil of life is ended and I'm letting go the rope.

I have drifted down the stream of time till weary, sore, oppressed,
And I am tired of the notion and simply want a rest.
I have tasted all the pleasures that life can hold for man;
I have scanned the whole world over till there's nothing left to scan.

I have heard the finest music, I have read the rarest books;
I have drunk the purest vintage and tasted all the corks;
I have run the scale of living and sounded every tone,
So there's nothing left to live for, and I long to be alone—

Alone and unmolested, where the vultures do not rave,
And the only refuge left me is the quiet, placid grave.
I am judge and jury mingled, and the verdict that I give
Is, that minus friends and money, it is foolishness to live.

In a day or two my body will be found out in the lake,
The Coroner get a fee, the printer get a "take";
The usual verdict, "Suicide, from causes yet unknown,"
And Golgotha draws another blank—a mound without a stone.

To change the usual verdict I will give the reason now
Before the rigid seal of death is stamped upon my brow:
'Tis the old familiar story of passion, love and crime,
Repeated through the ages since Cleopatra's time—

A woman's lips, a woman's eyes—a siren all in all,
A modern Circe fit to cause the strongest man to fall;
A wedded life, some blissful years, and poverty drops in,
With care and doubt and liquor, from whisky down to gin.

The story told by Tolstoi in comparison with mine
Is moonlight unto sunlight, as water unto wine,
The jealous pangs I suffered, the hideous nights of woe,
I pray no other mortal may ever undergo.

But I've said enough, I fancy, to make my reasons plain—
Enough to show the causes of shattered heart and brain.
What wonder then that life holds not a single thread to bind
A wish or hope to live for, an interest in mankind?

Already dead, but breathing—a fact that I regret—
A man without desires, now excepting to forget;
And since that is denied me, why should I linger here—
A dead leaf of the forest of a long-forgotten year?

So, adieu, old cronies! If there's a meeting place beyond,
I'll let you know in spirit and I know you will respond.
I'm going now, old comrades, to heaven or to hell—
I'll let you know which shortly—farewell, a long farewell.

OUR LETTER FROM THE ORIENT.

Corporal Geo. Taulbee Gives a Description of the Fourth of July in the Philippines.

To the Hazel Green Herald.

PANQUI LUZON, P. I.,
July 7, 1900.

Thinking it might interest the many readers of THE HERALD to see another letter from the Orient, and to know how the Fourth was spent and celebrated so far from home, I will try and give a description of the program participated in by this regiment on that day. The fourth of July one year ago was spent in the trenches around San Fernando; a bitter day for boys who had always laid aside all work to partake of luxuries and enjoy the day which marked our freedom years, years ago. The feeling of regret could be plainly seen upon the countenance of all. Folks at home were enjoying themselves in every way possible, in the mind of the soldier, while he was in a dirty trench, tired, hungry and with the sun beating down upon him with all its orient fury. It was enough to make the strongest heart turn sick and beat with regret. A year has passed since that never to be forgotten day, and another fourth has been spent here in our far away possessions by the same men who lay in the trenches one year ago. But with the year that has come and gone, came changes also.

The fourth this year was not so regretfully spent. The territory over which we were struggling last year, is now ours. The trench is not known today in this vicinity. Of course there are a great many contested places yet, but none we can't and won't win. The Philippines are practically ours. So mote it be. The day came with joy for us; at reveille on the fourth of July, 1900, was a new era awakening upon our new possessions. The band of this regiment played all national airs, while soldiers crowded around and gave cheer after cheer. The excitement was even greater than when we faced the dusky googs, in battle. The men had collected upon the plaza in front of the convent in which we are quartered. One thousand boys in blue, mingling and cheering with each other 'till tears of joy coursed down each sun-tanned cheek. It was indeed a glorious fourth. At last after playing long all familiar airs, the band struck up that song which stirs all patriotic hearts, "The Star Spangled Banner," and then the men went wild; officers and men alike cheered 'till they could cheer no longer from sheer exhaustion. All at once the bugle call for mess broke shrill upon the balmy air, and the boys retired to mess with cheerful hearts. Breakfast over, we went at once to the ball game, where a game was to take place between the band and our company. The game was very interesting and lasted until very near noon. The game over, preparations were at once made for dinner. Our cooks had long saved up extras for this occasion, and we naturally expected a good meal. You may imagine we were very anxious for mess, have to race around, expecting such a feast after a year eating hardtack, bacon and drinking black coffee. At 12 m, dinner was announced, and here is what we had: "Tea with cream, roast beef, warm biscuit, pork, pickles, onions, corn, beans, butter, French fried potatoes with cake and peaches for desert. It was a dinner, such as make soldiers forget their hardships for a moment and brings comfort to their storm-beaten hearts. It is needless to say the evening was joyfully spent after the excitement of the morning followed by such an excellent dinner. Games of all kinds were participated in, and all went as merry as a marriage bell till the bugle call announced retreat, then our dream of happiness was broken, and our duty as soldiers once more lay before us. I shall never forget the fourth of July I spent in the Philippines. We missed our friends and happy associates, but our toil and hardships prior to this, so suddenly lightened, made us, I dare say, forget their absence. We are very expectant over the trouble with China. However, we hope it will result in nothing serious.

We have just heard of the nomination of Bryan. The aristocratic natives are jubilant over the news.

If it was left to the inhabitants of the Philippines, Bryan would certainly be the next president of the United States.

I have just returned from Anglis, where I was sent for registered mail. The above place is fifty miles from here, and is our nearest post office. There is only four post offices on this island—one at Manila, one at Anglis and the other two at Dagupan and Batista. I think our government should establish a postal service here at once for the benefit of the soldiers and officers. It seems that our freedom loving people are more intent upon establishing saloons and billiard halls than something useful and beneficial to us as well as the natives. When Dewey took Manila, there were nine saloons in the city, today there are thirty-six, and more going up. Ashame and disgrace to our government.

With regards to Mrs. Cooper and success to the glorious old HERALD. I am, respectfully,

GEO. C. TAULBEE,
